

The Indiana law concerning unwanted telemarketing calls is working well. Please do not pre-empt my homes states' ability to allow its citizens to eliminate many of these nuisance calls. This is not a federal issue and hte my state is handling it just fine. If hte federal government must get involved, its' law should be tougher, not less so.